

THE NEWS

Our dispatches are quite meagre this morning owing to the rain that has prevailed at this and other points along the line. As the rain will do the country much more good than any news that could be sent, our readers will be inclined to accept a good shower in place of unimportant military operations.

We get later news from Grant's army via Baltimore, where all is reported to be in a prosperous condition. Grant is hopeful and the army in the best of spirits.

The Madison Patriot states what is not true when it says this paper has declared for over a year that slavery had become extinct. We believe that slavery is in the way of extinction and has received some damaging blows, but that it is not extinct is proven by the fact that hundreds of thousands of armed men in the south are in battle array for its defense, and thousands of doughface copperhead editors in the North like those of the Patriot, are eager and ready to defend and apologize for it. We would as soon see the accursed institution eradicated by the war power of the nation as by any other means; but to suit all hollow-hearted hypocrites who pretended they wished to see the evil exterminated, we on a hot-rod, we were anxious to see the recent amendment, just defeated by copperhead votes in congress, brought forward. When such men hereafter assert that they are not in favor of slavery, we know they are liars and the truth is not in them.

The New York Committee on this gold bill were at Washington at the latest dates, and expected to appear before the Committee on Finance. They have prepared a statement which is endorsed by all leading bankers, in which they characterize the gold bill as absurd and ridiculous, and say that it cannot be executed; that it has already resulted in injury to the great commercial interests of New York and other commercial cities; and that unless it is repealed, it will unsettle the entire business interests of the country. The Senate Committee are not disposed to take any action. They think that the bill ought to have a fair trial before it is condemned; that the cry against it has been gotten up by a few speculators. The chances are that nothing will be done with it.

The Editor of the Milwaukee News went home so generally disgusted with the Copperhead State Convention, that he thought so mean an assemblage must be voting to the place, and he turned to add a few lines on the subject.

If these copperheads, who are the Capital city, with her charming groves and crystal lakes, a place of meeting, what will they say when they all get together at last, where there is neither shade, gin-cockles, nor brandy smashes?

The Chattanooga Gazette says: Brig. Gen. Paine is settling the bushwhackers who have been upsetting Middle Tennessee so long, he having killed about twenty-five last week. He had nine shot on the public square in Lynchburg, Lincoln county, and several in Fayetteville. Among the number that have been killed was one Massey, who, it is said, is a Brigadier General of the A. I. He superintended all the guerrilla operations in Middle Tennessee.

PRAYING FOR GENERAL GRANT.—Rev. L. R. Ames, D. D., one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, preached in Boston on Sabbath last. The morning prayer included an appeal to Heaven in behalf of Lieutenant General Grant (by name) and also for the sick and wounded, as well as the strong men of the Union Army.

The homeopathic medical society of Connecticut, just incorporated by the legislature, have been organized by the choice of Dr. E. T. Foote of New Haven, as president; O. S. Brown, of Hartford, vice-president; and Dr. E. C. Knight, of Waterbury, secretary. Its annual meetings will hereafter be held alternately at Hartford and New Haven.

A decision interesting to hotel keepers has just been made in New York. The proprietors of Earl's Hotel, New York, have been held responsible for over 20,000 deposited by a boarder in their safe, and stolen by the clerk who received it. The proprietors were not aware that any such deposit had been made, but the fact was proved at the trial.

GOVERNOR MORTON, of Indiana, makes a good suggestion, which may be worthily imitated. "I voted upon outside of Indiana. Let every man and woman on the 4th of July remember the wounded soldiers and give that day to good deeds and generous offerings for the Sanitary Commission. A good day for the best of deeds."

A love of a lunnet is the latest thing put up for "jokes" at the Philadelphia fair. It is a lunnet, worth $175, and to be given to the wife of one of the generals. At last accounts Mrs. Meade had 244 votes, Mrs. Grant 154, and Mrs. Burnside 150.

THOMAS HYER, the famous pugilist, died very suddenly in New York on Sunday morning at the age of 45. His disease was dropsy of the heart. He had been breaking down for several years.

THE LATEST Boston "notion" is the organization of the children of the city in a league which pledges the members to abstain from "rum, tobacco and profanity."

STATE NEWS

The Fox Lake Gazette says the present high prices paid for wool has caused our farmers to bring it into market by the wholesale. Those who raised sheep have made a handsome profit. The Oshkosh Courier says Mr. Samuel Charlesworth, of Oshkosh, died very suddenly, on the evening of the 12th inst., of heart disease. He was attending a lecture being delivered by Mr. Stearns at that place when his spirit took its sudden flight. The Milwaukee Magnet of yesterday says the British steamer Magnet was seized on Tuesday by the Customs authorities for violating the importation law, which provides that no liquor shall be imported in smaller quantities than fifteen gallons. She is now in charge of United States officials. The Oshkosh Courier says the Fox and Wolf rivers are rising slowly; that strawberries are very abundant there at 20 cents a quart; that the tug boat Monitor caught fire and burned up the other day. The Portage City Register says the Milwaukee & Watertown railroad is completed to Wyoena and is rapidly being pushed forward. Next week Rio will be reached, and the entire road to Columbus will be finished up in less than time than has generally been expected. The Dodge County Fair is to be held this year at Juneau, on the 21st, 22d and 23d days of September. It has been decided to devote two hours in the afternoon of the second day to the sale of such articles as owners want to dispose of, and private barter and sale all of the third day will be allowed for products, stock, and manufactured articles. The Beaver Dam Citizen says that Mr. Elmer, of Lowell, has a colt so well trained that he led up a long flight of stairs into Kellogg's rooms, that place to have a photograph taken. Two marines a chestnut sorrel and the other a bay, were stolen from Mr. James Wakeman, of Deansville, Dane county, on the 15th inst. A reward of $50 is offered for the horses, and $50 for the thief.

DIED AND MADE NO SIGN.—The late "Democratic" State Convention was the first political assemblage which ever met in this State that was too cowardly to show its hand. There were no speeches made, no resolutions passed, no sign given, no platform of principles adopted, by which the faithful may be known. Geo. B. Smith seems to have lost his tongue, and Sat. Clark his boldness. Even Fred. Horn, who resigned his position as captain of the Cedarburg Rifles at the breaking out of the war, because the "track was getting too fresh," and who is usually full of beer and gas, excused himself from making a speech on taking the chair, because he "disagreed with a majority of the convention."

What a spectacle for a state convention of any thing to present.

MARYLAND HAS wheeled into line, and another undimmed star shines out in the constellation of Free States. Her Constitutional Convention, in session at Annapolis, passed yesterday the following article of her bill of Rights:

"Hereafter in this State there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except in punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted; and all persons held to service or labor as slaves are hereby declared free."

THE 10-40 BONDS.—The subscription to the 10-40 bonds is still before the public, and over seventy millions have been already taken. At the present rate of premium on gold, they pay nearly ten percent interest in currency, and at the conclusion of the war, they will certainly be worth par in gold.

IT COSTS something to get up a first-class copperhead mob. The draft riots in New York city destroyed so much property that the corporation has been compelled to issue what they call " Riot Damages Indemnity Bonds; $250,000 are offered for sale.

GOVERNOR MORTON has issued an appeal to the people of Indiana, calling upon them to make systematic efforts on or before the 4th of July next to supply funds and goods for the sick and wounded soldiers.

THE NOMINATION of Col. T. S. Briggs, of the 6th Wisconsin, as Brigadier General, was confirmed by the Senate on the 25th.

A post office clerk sends the following to Holtbrook's U. S. Mail: "A man called on our general delivery one day, when I happened for the moment to be engaged elsewhere in the office. He whistled loudly. I stepped to the window and saw a fellow in a top hat and a long coat, and a woman in a long dress. One of Uncle Sam's pups," said he, quite composedly. I had nothing to say."

EMIGRANTS TO THE FAR WEST.—Persons arrived from Colorado report meeting 10,000 emigrants, including women and children, between Denver City and the Missouri frontier. The chances of making a living there are very poor, as the mining claims are all taken, and there was a surplus of labor on the 1st of May.

WHAT A PITY," said Meyerbeer, when one night watching Fatti in Zarzuela, "that Mozart is not alive to see such a charming creation."

THE EDITOR of the New York World is one Marble. His propensity for lying suggested that he would make an excellent Marble on which to chisel an epitaph. —Poria Transcript.

How to Use the Computation Money.

(From the N. Y. Evening Post.)

Congress, we are glad to see, is not ready to repeal the three hundred clause. It would be, we are convinced, a great mistake to do so. But as the Government will continue to receive exemption money, why should it not do so, the suggested law is likely to be gathered by lawyers for soldiers, white or black, enlisting in the South. In that way the ranks could be kept full, and if Congress would regulate this matter that the men who receive bounties from the exemption fund should be credited to the quotas of the loyal States in the ratio of their representation in Congress, this would make every sum of three hundred dollars good for a volunteer would satisfy all States, and would stimulate recruiting in the South. Congress can make this rule, and thus satisfy everybody, and at the same time keep the armies full without further depletion of the workshops and fields of the North.

The armies must be kept full; this campaign must be the last against the rebels, and we cannot afford even for a moment to be careless. It is better that the government should draft more men than that it should wait a day too long. Our gallant men on the James, or knocking at the gates of Atlanta, must be supported; and if the rebels are to be put down, our men must be kept full. But there is no reason why recruiting should not be continued constantly at the South on the general account of the free States; and if this is done by the War Department, it may, and probably will, save us a draft in the free States. Now that negroes have won their way to the good opinion of the public by hard fighting, there can be no hesitation amongst any who really desire the rebellion put down, about enlisting as many as possible of these freedmen. Every man of them who fights under our colors is taken from the industrial force upon which the rebels rely for their food and other supplies. We injure the enemy while we benefit ourselves by these enlistments; and the War Department, the State Government, and the people should unite to get just as many of these freedmen as possible, white or black, into our armies. By the judicious use of the three hundred dollar exemption fund these enlistments can, we believe, be doubled or quadrupled almost at once.

The New Atlantic Cable.

A London paper thus describes the new Atlantic telegraph cable:

The conductor is a copper strand, consisting of seven wires, six laid round one, and weighing 360 lbs. per nautical mile, imbedded for solidity in Chatterton's compound. The insulator in the old cable was gutta percha, laid on in three coverings, and weighing 261 lbs. per knot; in the new it is gutta percha, four layers of which are laid on alternately with four thin layers of Chatterton's compound. The weight of the entire insulation is 400 lbs. per nautical mile. Ten solid wires of the gauge 695 (No. 13 gauge) were drawn from Webster and Horsfall's, homogeneous iron, each wire surrounded separately with five strands of Manila yarn, saturated with a preservative compound, and the whole laid spirally around the core, which latter is padded with ordinary yarn, saturated with a preservative mixture. The weight in the old cable was 29 lbs. 3 oz. per nautical mile, and of the new 32 lb. 1 oz. per nautical mile. Weight in the water of the old cable 134 cwt. per nautical mile, or equal to 4.85 times its weight in water per knot; that is to say it would bear its own weight in a little less than five miles depth of water; of the new 14 cwt. per nautical mile, or equal to eleven times its own weight in water per knot; that is to say it will bear its own weight in eleven miles depth of water. Breaking strain in the old cable, 3 tons 5 cwt.; in the new, 7 tons 15 cwt. The deepest water in both cables to be encountered is 3,400 fathoms. The contract strain of the new cable is equal to 1,855 times its weight per nautical mile in water; the contract strain of the new is equal to eleven times its weight per nautical mile in water.

THE DEATH OF MISS PICKENS A HOAX.

A short time since an account of a heartrending scene at a wedding in Charleston was going the rounds of the press. It was asserted that a daughter of Governor Pickens was killed by a shell from the blockade fleet, at the marriage altar. It turns out that the whole story was a hoax. A correspondent of the Mason Confederate writes that paper from Gordon:

"I perceive that you were much interested in publishing that Yankee lie regarding the ultimate death scene of Miss Anne Pickens."

We found the story in question in an exchange credited to the Charleston Mercury, a paper which we do not take and really had no other idea than that it was literally true.

The story originally appeared in a New York paper, having been furnished it by one of its enterprising lying correspondents in the South. —Southern Confederacy.

AN "ORR HAN" JOKE.

A study scene of one of the Massachusetts regiments being obliged to submit to the amputation of his hand, the surgeon offered to administer chloroform as usual, but the veteran refused, saying—"If the cutting was to be done on him, he wanted to see it," and laying his arm on the table, submitted to the operation without a sign of pain except a frown setting of his teeth when the saw struck the marrow. The operator as he finished, looked at his victim with admiration, and remarked—

"You ought to have been a surgeon, my man."

"I was the next thing to one afore I enlisted," said the hero.

"What was that?" asked the doctor.

"A butcher!" responded the sergeant with a grim smile, which despite the surroundings communicated itself to the bystanders.

DREAMED OCT.

The adjutant of the 18th Pennsylvania regiment, was drummed out of camp for cowardice last Sunday. In the rebel assault on our position at Dury's Bluff on the 10th of last month he deserted his men and ran to the rear to hide. A court martial sentenced him to be drummed out of camp. Labeled in startling letters as a coward, he was placed between two files of soldiers, and having arms reversed as at a funeral and the second in the "charge bayonet" style, the points of the weapons being put close to the culprit's person. In this order the miserable man was paraded through the camp, preceded by drummers and flanked by the 18th Pennsylvania regiment.

Our dispatches are quite meagre this evening owing to the rain that has prevailed at this and other points along the line. As the rain will do the country much more good than any news that could be sent, our readers will be inclined to accept a good shower in place of unimportant military operations.

We get later news from Grant's army via Baltimore, where all is reported to be in a prosperous condition. Grant is hopeful and the army in the best of spirits.

The Madison Patriot states what is not true when it says that slavery has been declared for over a year, that slavery had become defined. We believe that slavery is in the way of extinction and has received some damaging blows, but that it is not defined is proven by the fact that hundreds of thousands of armed men in the south are in battle array for its defense, and thousands of doughface copperhead editors in the North like those of the Patriot are eager and ready to defend and apologize for it. We would as soon see the accused institution eradicated by the war power of the nation as by any other means; but to suit all hollow-hearted hypocrites who pretended they wished to see the evil exterminated, we were anxious to see the recent amendment, just defeated by copperhead votes in congress, brought forward. When such men hereafter assert that they are not in favor of slavery, we know they are liars and the truth is not in them.

The New York Committee on the gold bill were at Washington at the latest dates, and expected to appear before the Committee on Finance. They have prepared a statement which is endorsed by all leading bankers, in which they characterize the gold bill as absurd and ridiculous, and say that it cannot be executed; that it has already resulted in injury to the great commercial interests of New York and other commercial cities; and that unless it is repealed, it will unsettle the entire business interests of this country. The Senate Committee are not disposed to take any action. They think that the bill ought to have a fair trial before it is condemned; that the cry against it has been gotten up by a few speculators. The chances are that nothing will be done with it.

The Editor of the Milwaukee News went home so generally disgusted with the Copperhead State Convention, that he is no longer an assemblage must be held in the place, and he turns to the other side Madison like a drab.

If these cops, berate the Capitol city, with "bitching grooves" and "crystal lakes," as a place of meeting, what will they say when they all get together at last, where there is no "bitching" shade, gin cocktails, nor brandy smashes?

The Chattanooga Gazette says: Brig. Gen. Paine is settling the bushwhackers who have been molesting Middle Tennessee, see as long, he having killed about twenty-five last week. He had nine shot on the public square in Lynchburg, Lincoln county, and several in Fayetteville. Among the number that has been killed was one Mussey, who is said to be a Brigadier General C. S. A. He superintended all the guerrilla operations in Middle Tennessee.

PRAYING FOR GENERAL GRANT.—Rev. U. R. Ames, D. D., one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, preached in Boston on Sabbath last. The morning prayer included an appeal to Heaven in behalf of Lieutenant General Grant (by name) and also for the sick and wounded, as well as the strong men of the Union Army.

The homeopathic medical society of Connecticut, just incorporated by the legislature, has been organized by the choice of Dr. E. T. Fogg, of New Haven, as president; O. S. Brown, of Hartford, vice-president; and Dr. E. C. Knight, of Waterbury, secretary. The annual meeting will hereafter be held alternately at Hartford and New Haven.

A decision interesting to hotel keepers has just been made in New York. The proprietors of Earl's Hotel, New York, have been held responsible for over $20,000 deposited by a boarder in their safe, and stolen by the clerk who received it. The proprietors were not aware that any such deposit had been made, but the fact was proved at the trial.

Go VERNOR MORTON, of Indiana, makes a good suggestion, which may be worthily imitated. He acted upon outside of Indiana. Let every man and woman on the 4th of July remember the wounded soldiers and give that day to the good deeds and generous offerings for the War Relief Commission. A good day for the best of deeds.

The Fox Lake Gazette says the present high prices paid for wool has caused our farmers to bring it into market by the wholesale. Those who raised sheep have made a handsome profit. The Oshkosh Courier says Mr. Samuel Charlesworth, of Oshkosh, died very suddenly, on the evening of the 12th inst., of heart disease. He was attending a lecture being delivered by Mr. Stearns in that place when his spirit took its sudden flight. The Milwaukee News of yesterday says the British steamer Magnet was seized on Tuesday by the Custom House authorities for violating the importation law, which provides that no liquor shall be imported in smaller quantities than fifteen gallons. She is now in charge of United States officials. The Oshkosh Courier says the Fox and Wolf rivers are rising slowly; that strawberries are very abundant there at 20 cents a quart; that the tug boat Monitor caught fire and burned up the other day. The Portage City Register says the Milwaukee & Watertown railroad is completed to Wyocena and is rapidly being pushed forward. Next week Rio will be reached, and the entire route to Columbus will be finished up in much less time than has generally been expected. The Dodge County Fair is to be held this year at Janesville, on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd days of September. It has been decided to devote two hours in the afternoon of the second day to the sale of such articles as owners want to dispose of, and private barter and sale all of the third day will be allowed for products, stock, and manufactured articles. The Beaver Dam Citizen says that Mr. Flint, of Lowell, has a colt so well trained that he led it up a long flight of stairs into Kellogg's rooms, of that place to have a photograph taken. Two mares one a chestnut sorrel and the other a bay, were stolen from Mr. James Wakeman, of Deansville, Dane county, on the 15th inst. A reward of $50 is offered for the horses, and $50 for the thief.

DIED AND MADE NO SIGN.—The late "Democratic" State Convention was the first political assemblage which ever met in this State that was too cowardly to show its hand. There were no speeches made, no resolutions passed, no sign given, no platform of principles adopted, by which the faithful may be known. Geo. B. Smith seems to have lost his tongue, and Sam Clark his boldness. Even Fred. Horn, who resigned his position as captain of the Cedarburg Rifles at the breaking out of the war, because the "track was getting too fresh," and who is usually full of bear and gas, excused himself from making a speech on taking the chair, because he "disagreed with a majority of the convention."

What a spectacle for a state convention of any thing to present.

MARYLAND HAS wheeled into line, and another undivided star shines out in the constellation of Free States. Her Constitutional Convention, in session at Annapolis, passed yesterday the following article of her bill of Rights: "Hereafter in this State there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude except in punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted; and all persons held to service or labor as slaves are hereby declared free."

THE 10-40 BONDS.—The subscription to the 10-40 bonds is still before the public, and over seventy millions have been already taken. At the present rate of premium on gold, they pay nearly ten per cent. interest in currency, and at the conclusion of the war, they will certainly be worth par in gold.

IT COSTS something to get up a first class copperhead mob. The draft riots in New York city destroyed so much property that the corporation has been compelled to issue what they call "Riot Damages Indemnity Bonds," $250,000 are offered for sale.

GOVERNOR MORTON has issued an appeal to the people of Indiana, calling upon them to make systematic efforts on or before the 4th of July next to supply funds and goods for the sick and wounded soldiers.

THE NOMINATION of Col. E. S. Bragg, of the 6th Wisconsin, as Brigadier General, was confirmed by the Senate on the 25th.

A post office clerk sends the following to Holbrook's U. S. Mail: "A man called at our general delivery one day, when I happened for the moment to be engaged elsewhere in the office. He whistled loudly. I stepped to the window and saw a dog inquired 'Whose dog he was whistling for?' One of Uncle Sam's pups," said he, quite composedly. I had nothing to say.

EMIGRANTS TO THE FAR WEST.—Persons arrived from Colorado report meeting 10,000 emigrants, including women and children, between Denver City and the Missouri frontier. The chances of making a living there are very poor, as the mining claims are all taken, and there was a surplus of labor on the 1st of May.

DICK RICHARDSON said in the Senate, the other day, that General Butler never fought a battle. Old "Dick" fights one every day, that of the Big Back-bottle. —Poria Transcript.

How to Use the Computation Money. From the N. Y. Evening Post. Congress, we are glad to see, is not ready to repeal the three hundred clause. It would be, we are convinced, a great mistake to do so. But as the Government will continue to receive exemption money, why should it not devote the same which are likely to be gathered by bounties for soldiers, white or black, enlisting in the South? In that way the ranks could be kept full, and if Congress would so regulate this matter that the men who receive bounties from the exemption fund should be credited to the quota of the loyal States in the ratio of their representation in Congress, this would make every sum of three hundred dollars good for a "volunteer" would satisfy all States, and would stimulate recruiting in the South. Congress can make this rule, and thus satisfy everybody, and at the same time keep the armies full without further depleting the workshops and fields of the North.

The armies must be kept filled; this campaign must be the last against the rebels, and we cannot afford even a moment's delay. It is better that the government should draft once than that it should wait a day too long. Our gallant men on the James, or knocking at the gates of Atlanta, must be supported; and if the rebels are not large enough to make victory certain, then new men ought to be called into the field. But there is no reason why recruiting should not be continued on the free South, and if this is done by the War Department, it may, and probably will, save us a draft in the free States. Now that negroes have won their way to the good opinion of the public by hard fighting, there can be no hesitation amongst any who really desire the rebellion to be put down, about enlisting as many as possible of these freedmen. Every man of them who fights under our colors is taken from the industrial force upon which the rebels rely for their food and other supplies. We injure the enemy while we benefit ourselves by these enlistments; and the War Department, the State Governments and the people should unite to get just as many Southern men as possible, white or black, into our armies. By the judicious use of the three hundred dollar exemption fund these enlistments can, we believe, be doubled or quadrupled almost at once.

THE NEW ATLANTIC CABLE. A London paper thus describes the new Atlantic telegraph cable: The conductor is a copper strand, consisting of seven wires, six laid round one, and weighing 300 lbs. per nautical mile, imbedded for solidity in Chatterton's compound. The insulator in the old cable was gutta serena, laid on in three coverings and weighing 250 lbs. per knot; in the new it is gutta serena, four layers of which are laid on alternately with four thin layers of Chatterton's compound. The weight of the entire insulation is 400 lbs. per nautical mile. Ten solid wires of the gauge 305 (No. 13 gauge) were drawn from Webster and Horsfall's homogeneous iron, each wire surrounded separately with five strands of Manila yarn, saturated with a preservative compound, and the whole laid spirally around the core, which latter is padded with ordinary cork, saturated with a preservative mixture. The weight in air of the old cable was 20 cwt. per nautical mile, and of the new 33 3/4 cwt. per nautical mile. Weight in the water of the old cable 13 1/4 cwt. per nautical mile, or equal to 4.85 times its weight in water per knot; that is to say it would bear five miles depth of water; of the new 14 cwt. per nautical mile, or equal to eleven times its own weight in water per knot; that is to say it will bear its own weight in eleven miles depth of water. Breaking strain of the old cable, 3 tons 5 cwt.; in the new, 7 tons 15 cwt. The deepest water in both cases to be encountered is 2,400 fathoms. The contract strain of the old cable was equal to 1.85 times its weight per nautical mile in water; the contract strain of the new is equal to eleven times its weight per nautical mile in water.

THE DEATH OF MISS PICKENS A HOAX. A short time since an account of a heartrending scene at a wedding in Charleston was going the rounds of the press. It was asserted that the daughter of Governor Pickens was killed by a shell from the blockade fleet at the marriage altar. It turns out that the whole story was a hoax. A correspondent of the Macon Confederate writes that paper from Gordon: "I perceive that you were most beautifully hoaxed in publishing that Yankee lie regarding the ultimate death scene of Miss Anna Pickens."

We found the story in question in an exchange credited to the Charleston Mercury, a paper which we do not take, and really had no other idea than that it was literally true. The story originally appeared in a New York paper, having been furnished it by one of its enterprising lying correspondents in the fleet. —Southern Confederacy.

AN "OFF HAND" JOKE.—A sturdy sergeant of one of the Massachusetts regiments being obliged to submit to the amputation of his hand, the surgeon offered to administer chloroform as usual, but the veteran refused, saying, "If the cutting was to be done on him, he wanted to see it," and laying his arm on the table, submitted to the operation without a sign of pain except a frown setting of his teeth as the saw struck the marrow. The operator, as he finished, looked at his victim with admiration and remarked: "You ought to have been a surgeon, my man."

"I was the next thing to one after I enlisted," said the hero.

"What was that?" asked the doctor.

"A butcher," responded the veteran, with a grim smile, while despite the surroundings communicated itself to the bystanders.

RETURNED OCT.—The adjutant of the 18th Pennsylvania regiment, was drummed out of camp for cowardice last Sunday. In the rebel assault on our position at Dury's Bluff on the 10th of last month he deserted his men and ran to the rear to hide. A court martial sentenced him to be drummed out of camp. Labeled in startling letters as a coward, he was placed between two files of soldiers, the first file having arms reversed as at a funeral, and the second in the "charge bayonet" style, the points of the weapons in this order the miserable man was paraded through the camp, preceded by drummers and flanked by the Rognie's march.

GOTTSCALK ON KNABE.
[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knab & Co, it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminence of the first artists. The Piano of their manufacture, on which I have played, was exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The tone is soft and without harshness, and the power more sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrysalthein), and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal, if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe of the country by the most celebrated makers.
